Y Bytheiaid Pedalhounds

Mae modd cael mynediad i lwybr gradd Ddu 'Y Bytheiaid' naill ai drwy lwybr Cafall XC neu'r gwasanaeth cludo ar y safle. Mae'n llwybr traws gwlad llinol sy'n opsiynol ond mae angen sgiliau ac offer beicio uwch na'r llwybr XC gradd Goch. Mae 'Y Bytheiaid' yn dilyn llinell hen lwybr clwb wedi'i adeiladu â llaw i lawr ochr ogleddol serth y cwm. Gan ddechrau gyda rhan wreiddiog wedi'i gwneud â llaw, mae'n codi cyflymder yn fuan wrth iddi lifo i mewn ac allan o'r rhannau coediog. Mae digon o ddisgyniadau a llinellau technegol gyda llawer o wreiddiau, creigiau a boncyffion felly cadwch lygad allan amdanynt a gwnewch yn siŵr eich bod yn gwybod beth sydd ar yr ochr arall cyn mentro ar unrhyw un o'r nodweddion. Mae'r llwybr yn gorffen gydag adran o neidiau serth a chyflym cyn cyrraedd yn ôl at fan codi'r gwasanaeth cludo.

Access to the 'Pedalhounds' Black-graded trail is either via the Cafall XC trail or the onsite uplift service. It is an optional linear cross-country trail but requires much higher advanced riding skills and equipment than a Red-graded XC trail. 'Pedalhounds' follows the line of an old hand-built, club trail down the steep north side of the valley. Starting off with a handmade rooty section it soon picks up speed as it flows in and out of the wooded sections. There are plenty of drops and technical lines with lots of roots, rock and stumps so keep an eye out for them and make sure you know what's on the other side before 'sending' any of the features. The trail finishes with a steep and fast jumps section before arriving back at the uplift pick-up point.

Y Bytheiaid Pedalhounds

Fe'ch cynghorir yn gryf i ddefnyddio beiciau teithio mwy ac i wisgo gwisg warchod ar gyfer yr allt gradd Ddu hon.

Larger travel bikes, full body-armor and full-face helmets are strongly advised for this Black-graded downhill trail.
